Amsterdam Tab by Van Halen

Description: This is how the Song is played in my opinion and tried to be as accurate as possible.

Difficulty: advanced Tuning: D A D G B E

Key: Bbm

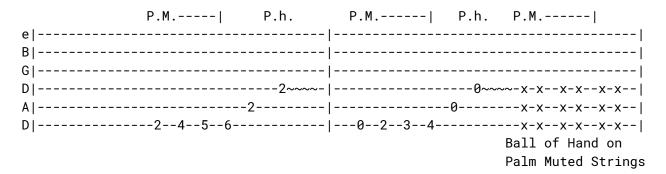

This tune is a wet/dry/wet sound, pitched down and up on left and right, clean in the middle.

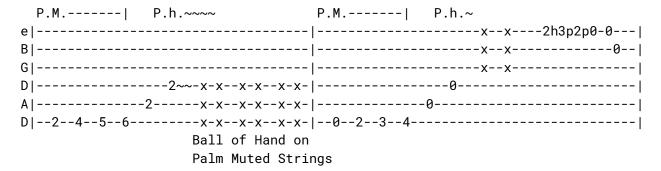

It has a tone sustain and compression, not so much gain as you would think, lots of pinch harmonics going on and rhythmically not so easy to figure out! The solo section will follow later, is a whole lot going on there! Have fun and enjoy!
